

SECRETARY'S REPORT FOR AGM 24

My first year as Secretary for OIR has flown by. As organiser of the rota for the Office Duty it is my task to make sure that the office is manned Monday to Friday by Committee Members or volunteers throughout the course of the year. I am happy to say that the rota fills up easily and we always manage to swap duties if necessary. A special 'thank you' to Sandra Galloway our volunteer who regularly stands in and assists when possible.

It is always interesting to meet new members as well as existing members who come into the office looking for information on group activities and how to participate. As a newcomer to the area myself, and to OIR I can assure them that they will receive a warm welcome and make new friends.

Often enquiries come via our website and I am grateful to Bill Alexander for his help in keeping the information accurate and up-to-date.

At this time of year, it is my duty to compile the paperwork for the AGM. It takes a bit of time and planning but it gradually comes together with a bit of much appreciated teamwork from all the necessary parties. Thank you.
